Parent/Player/Coaching behaviors are the key factors in continued participation of youth in sports today. Remember that this program is for the recreational players and teams, and setup of teams and league play is for the betterment of the whole program vs. individual teams or players. Teams are setup in an effort to balance abilities and experience different coaches. Players with advanced abilities should consider playing up in the next division. Sportsmanship is key for players, coaches and spectators. Failure to demonstrate appropriate behavior could result in suspension from current &
